

SENATE PROGRAM

Conflict Between Ship Subsidy and Army Bills

THE LATTER PRESSING

A Possible Arrangement by Which Both May Be Considered Daily—A Likelihood that the House Will Dispose of the Reapportionment Bill Before the End of the Present Week.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The general expectation among senators is that the first few days of the time of the senate after convening tomorrow will be devoted to the consideration of the army reorganization bill, but there is some disposition to make an arrangement for a division of time that will permit of the continued presentation of the ship subsidy bill during a part of the day.

When the committee on order of business, representing the republican side of the senate, made the subsidy bill the regular order of business at the beginning of the present session there was an understanding that when the army bill should be presented for consideration other measures should be laid aside temporarily, if considered necessary, in order to secure the prompt passage of the army bill. There is apparently a disposition on the part of some senators partially to disregard this agreement, and the friends of the subsidy bill, most of whom are also supporters of the army bill, are trying to secure an understanding for a concurrent consideration of the two bills.

At a meeting of the committee on military affairs has been called for tomorrow, when the matter of procedure probably will be discussed and a decision reached as to whether the committee shall ask for all the time of the senate until its bill is disposed of, or only a part of it. Some of the members of the committee are disposed to divide time with the subsidy bill for the present, but all the senators, regardless of politics, consider the army bill of pressing importance, because of the fact that the time for which the volunteer soldiers in the Philippines are enlisted, has almost expired.

Hence it is probable that some agreement will be reached regarding the matter of delay on the military measure. While comparatively few of the opposition senators will vote for the bill, none of them appear willing to make any objection to its early consideration.

THE RE-APPORTIONMENT BILL.
Washington, Jan. 2.—The house will probably dispose of the re-apportionment bill this week, although Chairman Burton of the river and harbor committee is inclined to contest the right way of the census committee. The reapportionment bill carrying out, as does, a constitutional requirement, a matter of higher privilege than any appropriation bill, and if Chairman Hopkins insists, it probably will be given priority.

PRIZE FIGHT PROMOTER.
Stewart Has Resumed Business at Carson

Carson City, Nev., Jan. 2.—Dan Stewart, the prize fight promoter, has moved here. He made the statement that he was here in the interests of a prize fight to take place in the latter part of May. He states that Jeff, in all probability, will be here. When asked if Fitzsimmons would go against the champion he made no denial, but stated that he had plenty of capital. He mentioned McGovern as one of his stars.

CUBA'S CONSTITUTION.
Bills May Be Submitted to Congress by February 1.

Havana, Jan. 2.—The various sections into which the Cuban constitutional convention was divided some time ago for the purpose of preparing and submitting drafts of constitutions for the consideration of the convention as a whole, are gradually getting together on the basis of a unitary government, with restricted suffrage. Convention leaders now hope to have this work completed by January 1, so that the results may be submitted to the United States congress February 1. The sectional discussions have been bitter and prolonged and, therefore, there will be less debate in the open sessions, the hard fight having been made in the secret sessions in order to save public wrangling.

BALTIMORE BANK FAILURE.
Receiver for Old Town Bank—Bonds of $1,500,000 Required.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 2.—Roger T. Gill of the law firm of N. Rufus Gill & Sons was appointed receiver this afternoon for the Old Town Bank by Judge Stockbridge. The appointment was made with the consent of the president and officers of the bank. Mr. Gill bonded in the sum of $1,500,000, the assets of the institution being valued at half that amount.

George Schilling, a stockholder and depositor, and Robert Gill, a depositor, claim that on account of recent losses resulting from the action of its cashier, Theodore F. Wilcox, who, without the knowledge of the president or board of directors, permitted Isaac Robinson and the United Milk Producers' association to draw from the bank large sums of money, the bank is unable to meet its liability.

A KINGMAN FIRE.
Kingman, Ariz., Jan. 2.—The Kingman sampling works burned this morning, together with four Santa Fe cars. The loss is $12,000. The fire originated in the cars, which were occupied by drunken hobos.

KENNEDY'S NEW TRIAL.
Supposed Murderer of Dolly Reynolds In Court Again

New York, Jan. 2.—The case of Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy, convicted of the murder of "Dolly" Reynolds and sentenced to death more than a year ago, was brought up for a new trial today. The new trial has been granted on the plea of newly discovered evidence in the condemned man's favor.

The Reynolds murder was one of the most sensational in the criminal history of the notorious "Tenderloin" district. "Dolly" Reynolds was found dead in a room in the Grand hotel, having been struck down from behind with a piece of lead pipe. Suspicion centered on Dr. Kennedy, a Long Island dentist, who, it was learned, had had appointments at the hotel with the young woman. It was learned that Kennedy had been playing the races with money furnished by "Dolly" Reynolds, and when a check for a large amount of money was found on the body and was traced to Kennedy the evidence was considered sufficient to place him on trial. Kennedy was identified by employees of the hotel and after a long and sensational trial he was convicted and sentenced to the electric chair. Through new evidence to be furnished by cab drivers and others an attempt is to be made to prove an alibi for Kennedy by contradicting the testimony of the hotel employees who testified that Kennedy did not leave the Grand hotel until 2:30 a. m., following the night of the murder.

IRON WORKERS STRIKE.
Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 2.—A thousand structural iron workers struck today for an advance of 6 cents per hour in wages and nine hours per day. This afternoon a committee of strikers left for New York to confer with President Roberts of the American Bridge company.

SOME QUICK WORK.
A Bunco Artist Railroaded to San Quentin

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 2.—Last Monday night three bunco steers robbed J. R. Crawford, a mining man, from Mono county, out of $250. With the aid of a revolver and a citizen Crawford succeeded in getting one of the robbers to jail.

He gave the name of D. J. Smith, admitted his guilt and was this morning held to answer to the superior court. Half an hour later he appeared before Judge Hart, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment in Folsom penitentiary.

MINT DIES DESTROYED.
Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—At the United States mint in this city a score of workmen were employed today in destroying all of the steel dies that were used in 1900. The dies were placed in a furnace, twenty-five at a time, and when at white heat, were taken out and put on an anvil, where they were pounded with fourteen-pound hammers until all traces of the designs were lost. The dies used in the mints at New Orleans and San Francisco are also destroyed here in the same manner.

THEY GET THE INCREASE.
Scranton, Jan. 2.—Traffic will be resumed on all the lines of the Scranton Railway company, in accordance with last night's compromise agreement, giving the employees an increase in wages.

IT WAS THAWED OUT

The Deadly and Careless Use of Dynamite

Six Men Were Killed and Three of Them Were Blown to Atoms in a West Virginia Railroad Camp.

Keyser, W. Va., Jan. 2.—One of the most disastrous accidents in the history of railroad building in this section happened at Baker Camp, near Durbin, Pocahontas county, on the line of the Coal & Iron railroad now building out from Elkins. As the result of a dynamite explosion six men are dead and several others are not expected to live.

The accident happened while the men were at dinner. Some dynamite had been placed about the stove to thaw out and shortly after a terrific explosion wrecked the camp, killing three men outright and injuring eight others, three of whom have since died. The dead men were blown into atoms. Physicians hurried from Green Bank and worked all night with the wounded, some of whom begged the doctors to shoot them instead of helping them to live to be blinded or maimed for life. On account of indirect connection with the camp it is impossible to secure the complete details tonight.

AN OHIO SOCIETY'S REQUEST.

Washington, Jan. 2.—United States Surveyor-General Claves of California called at the White House today and invited the president to attend the annual banquet of the Ohio society of California on the occasion of his visit to the coast to attend the launching of the battleship Ohio. The president assured General Claves that he would attend if nothing intervened to prevent.

JACK FROST AT RIVERSIDE.
Tuesday's Was the Coldest Night of the Season.

Riverside, Cal., Jan. 2.—Last night was the coldest of the season here. The thermometer went down as low as 22 in some of the lower tracts in the valley in the early morning, and it ranged from this to 22, according to location. That some damage was done the fruit is not questioned, but the damage will be confined to the orchards on low ground. Many orchardists were prepared for the cold snap by having their orchards well soaked with water and where this was done there will be no damage. Others made use of smudges and the fire also helped to modify the cold wave. The weather has changed and is warmer tonight.

DAILY-BROWN WEDDING.

Daughter of the Dead Millionaire Is Led to the Altar.

New York, Jan. 2.—The wedding of Miss Margaret Daly, daughter of Marcus Daly, the late multi-millionaire, and Carroll Brown, of Baltimore, was quietly celebrated today at the home of the bride's mother on Fifth avenue. It had been arranged that the wedding was to have been before Christmas and was to have been an elaborate affair, but the death of the bride's father necessarily caused a change of plan and at today's ceremony only the relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present. The bridegroom is a well known club man of Baltimore and is master of hounds of the Green Spring Valley Hunt club of that city.

POLO AT LOS ANGELES.

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—Riverside, in a game of polo, crossed sticks with Santa Barbara today, and won by a score of 4 to 1. Riverside displayed superior team work.

AN ASSAULT ON SOCIETY.

A Construction Put on a New Year's Invitation

It was mentioned in The Republican yesterday that Justice J. M. Burnett flooded Phoenix with invitations to call and see him in his splendid judicial apartments in the Nicholson block. As was stated hundreds called, others sent messages of regret, and still others neglected any form of reply.

Among the judge's mail yesterday morning was a letter addressed to "Hon. J. M. Burnett, Just. J. P." The contents were as follows:

"Hon. J. M. Burnett, Phoenix, Ariz.—Dear Sir I am in receipt of a unique invitation to me to call on you at your court, corner Broadway and Center street. I am puzzled to know to just what I am indebted for this honor. I at first supposed it to be a summons or subpoena, but as either of those legal documents it is defective in form, as you as a lawyer ought to know. In the first place it does not state whether I am wanted as a juror or a witness, nor is any mention made of the cause in which my presence is desired. I can hardly conceive that you could be guilty of so gross and palpable an error.

"I also had a suspicion which seems the more reasonable, that you are endeavoring in this unusual way to break into society. I cannot say that I approve of the means you have employed, though I must admit you have manifested judicial penetration in applying to a foremost member of society like me.

"I regret that I cannot accept your invitation, since to do so would be a quasi recognition of you as an eligible person for admission to our set. We cannot afford you this recognition without knowing more about you. It is true that you are a justice of the peace, but that office is not commonly regarded as a certain passport to the best society. Many justices of the peace are not learned and some are wanting in respectability. I do not say that you are laboring under either of these disqualifications, nor do I give credence to the rumor put in circulation on November 7 of the last year, that your election was improperly accomplished. I assume, on the contrary, that you were honestly elected, but I desire to know more before taking any step toward forcing you upon society. Enclosed you will find a slip containing a list of interrogatories, replies to which you will please forward to me by return mail. I will then see what can be done in the matter of elevating you above the plane you now occupy to the one occupied by me.

"Yours respectfully,"
The list of questions related to Judge Burnett's views on the subjects of statehood and forest preservation; the matter of the bonding of Maricopa county for water storage; the proper way to dispose of a land at sale or poker without detriment to one's partner; the nebular theory and the senatorial situation in Pennsylvania.

THE NEW YORK SESSION.

Likely to Be Prolonged by a Multiplicity of Business

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—The legislature met at noon today and after listening to the message of Governor Odell, organized with Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff occupying his old place as presiding officer in the senate, and S. Fred Nixon of Chautauque, re-elected speaker of the assembly. The indications are that the session will be a long one, for a number of measures of general interest and importance are likely to come up. The attendance to the New York city charter will necessarily cause much discussion, and the proposed single headed, or bi-partisan, police bill for the same city will undoubtedly be a troublesome bill to pass. A modified bill to relieve the burden of real estate taxation by taxing mortgages and possibly savings banks accounts will receive early attention. Another measure that will attract attention is the anti-divorce scandal bill which has for its object the creation of a provision for a public defender in all divorce cases where courts now have authority to designate an attorney to defend the accused. It is urged that while such a law would not stop divorces altogether, it would stop the fraud and collusion to a great extent now apparent. Another proposed measure of general interest is the bill to establish a permanent court for the arbitration of labor disputes. Several constitutional amendments of minor importance are also scheduled for attention.

AN INGENIOUS SWINDLER.

Solicited Funds in France to Convert Indians of New Mexico.

Paris, Jan. 2.—The appeal court has confirmed the sentence of five years' imprisonment imposed on an ingenious swindler named Goffray, who posed in clerical clothes here last April as the "cardinal bishop of Washington," soliciting funds to convert the young Indians of New Mexico. Several times Goffray succeeded in celebrating mass and once was nearly arrested on the point of celebrating mass at Strasbourg. Finally he appeared at Montclair, in the department of Drome, where he lectured to the Trappist monks on his terrible adventures in the Rocky Mountains, where he said he was scalped by the Indians to whom he was preaching the gospel. The fraud was discovered by Goffray pretending that the Indians of the Rocky Mountains were Esquimaux.

LARGE CLAIM FOR MILEAGE.
Delegate Wilcox of Hawaii Receives $1,000.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Robert H. Wilcox, delegate in the house of representatives from the Hawaiian islands, has just been paid a claim of $1,000 for mileage. It was the largest claim of the kind ever made, but it was paid promptly by the sergeant-at-arms of the house. Every congressman is entitled to mileage at the rate of 50 cents a mile by the most direct and practicable route from his home to Washington and return.

The distance between Honolulu and Washington is figured at 5,000 miles. Mr. Wilcox will draw $1,000 more for his return trip.

MAINE'S LIQUOR LAW.

The Question of Resubmission Being Agitated

Augusta, Me., Jan. 2.—The Maine prohibitory liquor law, which ever since its enactment has been the butt of satire and jest owing to its lax enforcement, is likely to go by the board if certain republican leaders have their way in the session of the state legislature, which convened today. For a long time past there has been a well defined sentiment throughout the state favoring the resubmission of the liquor law amendment to the constitution to the vote of the people.

At the same time, there is a strong and influential lobby maintained by those who have waxed fat through surreptitious and illegal handling of liquor and the plans of the prohibitionists will hardly get through the legislature without a bitter contest.

AFFECTS ARIZONA

In the Matter of the Forest Reservations

A Case to Determine Whether the Secretary of the Interior May Establish Regulations as to Grazing Upon Them.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The government proposes to appeal to the United States supreme court from a decision of the United States district court, a case affecting the right of congress to delegate its authority to the secretary of the interior to make rules and regulations as to grazing upon forest reservations and to grant permits and to fix penalties.

ROGER WOLCOTT'S ESTATE.

According to Assessor's Books It Was Valued at About $246,000.

Boston, Jan. 2.—The estate of the late Roger Wolcott represents, according to the assessor's books of Boston and Milton, about $246,000. The real value would be considerably in excess of that amount. In Boston there is the residence at 173 Commonwealth avenue, which has an assessed value of $51,000. In Milton there is a large country estate assessed for about $70,000. That comprises the real estate. On personal property Roger Wolcott last year paid a tax of $125,000.

A SKEPTICAL OWNER.

San Francisco, Jan. 2.—Devereaux, against whom several books had 150 to 1, took first race in clever style at Oakland today. Ems got him off in front and he led all the way. Sam Merriweather, the owner, had only $4 on the gelding.

NOT THE KIDNAPER.

Young Cudahy Fails to Identify Pat Crowe

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 2.—Edward A. Cudahy, Jr., failed today to identify J. A. Crowe as one of the men who kidnapped him. Cudahy appeared at the city jail and confronted Crowe in the Berthillon room.

After looking at the suspect five minutes or more young Cudahy remarked: "I never saw that man before, and if he had anything at all to do with the kidnapping I did not see him." Crowe was then released.

MR. CUDAHY'S TRAP.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 2.—All the banks in Dallas today received descriptions of the money paid by Mr. Cudahy at Omaha for the ransom of his son. It is claimed that marks were placed on the money. When any of it is attempted to be passed the arrest of the person or persons offering the marked money is to follow. Banks throughout the United States and Canada and Mexico have received similar notices.

STATE LEAGUE MEETING.

Michigan's Young Republicans Meet in Annual Convention.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 2.—Young republicans from every county in Michigan are taking part today in the annual meeting of the state league of republicans. The convention met at 10 o'clock and listened to addresses by a number of well known party leaders. Reports presented showed the league in a flourishing condition, more than 400 new organizations having been formed during the last year. Interest centers largely in the contest for officers for the ensuing year. Indications at noon pointed to the selection of Fred R. Fenton of Detroit to the vice presidency. The leading candidates for the office of secretary are Franz Kuhn of Mount Clemens and S. W. Barker of Grand Rapids.

WM. DOWELL'S FUTURE.

It Can Be No More Uncertain Than His Past

Wm. Dowell, who helps preserve the peace of this city at so much per month, for the support of the best woman and the prettiest baby in North America, says that for the last two years he can't help feeling reminiscent on New Year's eve. Three years ago, December 31st, he was putting up a plot for a drama in real life that he knew would result in making for his everlasting happiness or in filling his hide with buckshot.

Mr. Dowell was raised in Arkansas and had wood and won the woman of his choice some years ago, but he could never convince her father that he was the right kind of timber to make a son-in-law out of. So he came to Arizona, made a few dollars and three years ago, New Year's eve, found himself in Forest City with an abduction enterprise on hand. He was a trump card with everybody but the old gentleman, and the young lady was doing her best to help him steal her.

He had lots of friends, so an arrangement was made whereby the bride-to-be, should attend a New Year's eve dance ten miles in the country and adjacent to a railroad station. In the afternoon Mr. Dowell bade all his friends goodbye and took the south bound train, going about eighty miles, then taking the return train north again. When he got back to the station ten miles from Forest City he found the young lady with a dozen of her friends waiting on the platform. Two minutes more and they were whizzing north. They stopped at the first station in the next county, hunted up a preacher, said "yes," and boarded the next train for Memphis, Tenn. The old gentleman is still looking for that New Year's dance.

A few days later they landed in Phoenix and have never had occasion to regret their escapade of three years ago. "I may not have everything I want," said Mr. Dowell, "but I'm a good deal better off than I would have been if those Arkansas trains had been caught in a washout near Forest City."

TWO KILLED AT A CROSSING.

ILLNESS OF SECRETARY HAY.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Secretary John Hay is again indisposed and confined to his home today.

MRS. HARDWICK'S FUNERAL.

Arrival of Her Grief Stricken Husband From Mexico

Mr. J. J. Hardwick arrived here early yesterday morning on a special train from Maricopa. He left Mexico at once on receipt of the message announcing the serious illness of his wife, but did not learn of her sudden death till he reached Tucson.

The funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church, all friends of the deceased being invited to attend.

Mrs. Hardwick's maiden name was Esperanza de Aguilar and she was born at Horecasitas, Sonora, Mexico, in December, 1874. She was the daughter of Maria de Aguilar, and the sister of Mrs. F. Montijo and the Misses Maria and Jose Aguilar. She leaves three little girls, Dora, Carlita and Sarah Elizabeth, to mourn the loss of a kind and indulgent mother. The youngest child is but eight months old.

Mrs. Hardwick was a most estimable woman and had many friends who sincerely mourn her untimely death and whose sympathy goes out to the bereaved husband and children. The suddenness of the sad occurrence adds greatly to the shock; for though Mrs. Hardwick had suffered considerably from rheumatism, her illness was not regarded as serious. Sunday night she was taken very suddenly and sent for a physician, but expired before his arrival.

A COAL STRIKE.

Denver, Jan. 2.—Thousands of miners employed in the mines of the Northern Coal company at Lafayette, have struck for higher wages. These mines are the main source of Denver's coal supply, and unless the strike is speedily settled there may be a coal famine here.

RESULTS FROM ADVERTISING.

A Short Talk With a Man Who Makes That His Business

Mr. Wm. H. Simpson, advertising agent of the Santa Fe railway, stopped over in Phoenix yesterday and during the day paid a call upon the secretary of the board of trade. In speaking of the work of the Santa Fe railroad company in helping to advertise this valley, Mr. Simpson said that the agents all along the line east of Kansas City report heavy travel this way, and in several reports of the agents special reference was made to the fact that many of the tourists personally said that they were directed to Phoenix by the folders issued by the board of trade, which were distributed throughout the east by Secretary Chapman while on his advertising trip last summer in the interests of the valley. He commended the directors of the board of trade for their good judgment displayed in trying to place the climate of this valley before the public notice in such a manner as individual advertising, and hoped the ground covered would be visited this year. Continuing, he said:

"The Santa Fe is ever alive to the great benefits your climate can give to those in search of health, and the road has made arrangements to advertise more this year than ever before."

Mr. Simpson was pleased with the city and in the afternoon visited the Indian school and orange groves accompanied by his wife, Agent Gillett and a few other friends. He left last night for the north on important business for the road.

DRIVING DE WET

But No Progress Made Toward His Capture

HE KEEPS MOVING

And Keeps the British Guessing—The Situation is so Grave at Cape Town that Today Heavy Guns Will Be Taken From the Battle Ship Monarch to Awe the Restless Dutch.

London, Jan. 2.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener: "Dewet returned toward Bethlehem, but he was headed off by Col. Picher and retreated toward Lindley."

"One hundred and thirty Boer horses have been captured near Thabanchu."

"The railway has been damaged south of Salfordien."

"Williams engaged the Boers south-east of Middleburg, Cape Colony, and the British now occupy Graaf Reinet."

"Martial law has been proclaimed in Worcester, Cape, Prince Albert, Pragerberg and Sutherland divisions," says the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail.

SERIOUS IN THE SOUTH.

Cape Town, Jan. 2.—The British battleship Monarch will land guns tomorrow as a precautionary measure. The situation is undoubtedly serious. It is true that the Dutch have not joined the invaders in any considerable numbers, but lack of arms is believed to be the only true reason for abstention.

KITCHENER'S NEXT JOB.

London, Jan. 2.—It is understood that at the conclusion of operations in South Africa Lord Kitchener will become commander-in-chief in India.

As the republicans are in control, the two togas will be awarded to the leaders of that party. The three strong candidates are Edward Rosewater, the Omaha editor; George D. McKeljohn, third assistant secretary of war, and D. E. Thompson. Besides these three leaders, the field includes a number of dark horses, which give opportunity for much in the way of combination and selection.

A KEROSENE EXPLOSION.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 2.—By the explosion of a kerosene lamp at Allegheny today Lillie Brown, aged 22, was burned to death and her mother fatally injured.

THE SUPERVISORS' CLERK.

The Appointment of Mr. Osborn Made Yesterday

The board of supervisors yesterday appointed Neri Osborn clerk of the board. It is understood that he will not enter upon the active discharge of his duties until about February 1. With the single exception of the presidency of the United States there was no office, anywhere in the country, so far as anybody in Phoenix knows, fought for with so great liveliness. It became the aim of not only the individual applicants of a considerable part of the democratic party of the county, but each of the various democratic factions demanded that the office be given to some member of the faction as a recognition of its regularity.

At the beginning there were fewer than a score of candidates. Early in the contest several dropped out, but as each fell panting by the way, two or three more sprang up to take his place.

About a week ago there was a conference of the two democratic supervisors-elect, at which even the strong pressure of Mark Smith's influence was laid upon one member who had been understood to be in favor of some other candidate than Mr. Osborn, but at the close of the conference it was announced that he had been agreed upon. Immediately afterward a whole livery stable full of dark horses were precipitated into the race. These entries were received up to the last moment.
